Team Kel-berg Roskilde Junior - new strong team for the 2015 season

Team Kel-berg Roskilde Junior is ready with a new strong team for the 2015 season and we are glad to present our new sports director Søren Lilholt – Søren Lilholt has many years of experience in managing junior and senior teams and he has been involved in international races across Europe. Søren Lilholt was a professional cyclist from 1986 to 1992 where he wore the green jersey in Tour de France in 1988 and 1989 – and was the overall winner of Tour de Luxemburg in 1987.

The level of ambition is the same as before. Team Roskilde Junior wants to be perceived as the team, with burning passion, to achieve the goal of being one of the best junior teams in Europe. Team Kel-berg Roskilde Juniors ambition is to both nationally and internationally deliver remarkable results and give each rider the optimal development - both personally and professionally as a member of an elite cycling team.

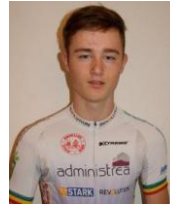

We are proud to introduce our riders for 2015 season, and we hope you will be able to meet our riders personally, when they start in your race.
